Greetings seeker of divine wisdom,
These words of Power, that I have found within, "The Emerald Tablets from Tehuti".
These words that have been individually interpreted within this tablet provided a way to break through my self imposed confusion.
And these words of power will provide a wisdom seeker with the divine wisdom for ascension.
These words of Power are without a doubt, and they reveal what too many are afraid to address within themselves.
They are afraid of the true power of their Love, and they be lie eve in what they were taught or told.
So to believe is to lie to yourself by being ignorant and ignoring the facts.
This is due to the docility training for animals known as education.
Also, there is a very powerful will to be an irresponsible total dumb ass.
And because of this lack of will to learn on their own, and teach themselves. These minions limit themselves to 3 dimensional thought patterns.
They do not feel that unconditional Love, and are not free to experience life the way they choose to because of their self imposed limits, because only through, "All Law" are we truly free. This Divine Eternal Intelligence is the Governance for All Life everywhere, and at all moments for existence.
So know yourself, be Self Created, and advance your being.

Because we have all been on the path to Self realization.
From before there was time and even physicality.
We are all Conscious projected expressions from,
"The Divine Eternal Universal Consciousness"*.
This Ultimate Supreme Omnipresent and Omnipotent Intelligence has given all of us Life, to express our appreciation for this life opportunity. I have chosen to teach myself through, "All Law". And to experience physicality without limits, and to relay those experiences back to the divine source for all life.
For those on the path, they will find that all is, Divine Consciousness. And This Pure Intelligence this Eternal Brightness gives Light to all life everywhere. Our universe is a Free-willed Universe for divine Advancement. And this Divine Eternal Universal Consciousness is the Intelligence for The Pure Eternal Brightness from The Source of all Life. The pure Brightness within the light. And all of us share this consciousness, and we have this life to think and to experience life for ourselves, and express our appreciation for this life the best way we know from within. So our cells contain this light of brightness that makes us eternal beings as we travel the path of eternity to further our Self realization, and experiences to return to our Eternal source for all Life. Because Life is always and eternal.
This is so, this is so, this is so.
The Truth be known, the truth be known, the truth be known.
Make it so, make it so, make it so.

All Law is The Ultimate Supreme Law that is The Divine Eternal Intelligence that has, will, and will always be The Omnipotent, and Omnipresent Intelligent Governance for all Life.

So the father energy is represented as the Suns souler energy, and the mother energy is represented as the all encompassing energy that moves all things everywhere. It's The Big Mama energy the mother wit wisdom source for eternal advance for the self.

Both are Divine forces that offset the next to create a perpetual dynamic motion for creation. These Solar energy bursts, and cosmic winds, we call radio and solar radiation. Really carry information for the Divine Intelligence to awaken within all Life, and raise our limited consciousness.Then you will find that this, Eternal energy is the mystery of Divine intelligence, and perpetual dynamic creative imagination, are a treasure-house of wonders, wisdom, and eternal life, for your self ascension.

So this work to attempt to perfect your perfection will happen by the mother powers for Divine Nurturing. This is The Divine Mother wit
So, know this be love it ones,

These forces offset each other with mutual respect to the perpetuation of the creation process, and advancement for life everywhere. So this Fire creates dust that becomes the Earth's and other heavenly bodies. And only through this Divine Intelligence can the cohesion, and separation of the Earths from the Fire, and the other elements provides the motion for the creation for all life.

So these forces create the elements for creation to manifest,

And one force offsets the other to perpetuate the building basis for all life. With Divine skilled works, and intelligent restraints true eternal wisdom will descend from the Heavens to the earth's, and ascend to the heavens from the many earth's, and those on the path to ascension, and the unboundless universes.

And within the Divine Intelligence itself is the power of the highest wisdom, to transcend the lowest plains of knowledge and physicality. And to ascend to the Highest Source of Brightness within The Divine Eternal Universal Consciousness of all light, therefore darkness flees from it, and the truth will be revealed.

So, know this, be love it one's. That, "All Law", is The Ultimate Supreme Power of powers. And the only Intelligent Law That Governs All Life Everywhere and you must know this, "All Law" can conquer all doubts, all fear, and all things everywhere, at any time, and its power penetrates everything. And it is yours by your Divine Eternal Rights and Free will. So, by Following the creation of the Macrocosm, and your own microcosm. And by linking the heart and mind through seeking the true wisdom within and discovering who, and what kind of being you really are.

This Work is completed, but only for a new beginning.

Life is Eternal. So find your own truth. Know, and stop be lie eve ing. Because to believe, is to lie to one's self, and ignore the facts.

This is the ignorance that leads to cognitive dissidence and future self-imprisonment. So this is my glory, and my supreme will,

to always teach myself, what i, what to know.

And to be who I say I am, and to be true to myself always.

So, from this Emerald Tablet from Tehuti, Thoth, or Hermes named
Three times with respect to others Wisdom.
So with this truth, it untangled the words of power for me.
And by this, it re-opened my mind that i allowed to be closed due to my own self-imposed limitations. And by that I let others exploit my good intentions for their benefit. Now, remember these words of power and make them your own. Study what you want. Write the way you feel. And teach yourself what you want to know.
Because if you think the true wisdom and knowledge comes from only books, classes, courses, and the mere limited opinions of others.
Then this will bind you like a chain, and prevent you from knowing.
Keep this close to your heart, and know that real wisdom and knowledge comes from direct experiences.
When nothing can move you from your set path, and you stand on your own self-created foundation of self-knowledge.
Then the Higher divine wisdom will descend to the lower plains of existence, and then the lower-dimensional being can ascend.
Know this you can not get more from less.
So what is above is below only the vibrational level is different.
Also know, that all the mystical working of wonders comes from the one divine source for all life.
And as all things originate together from this one source of life, and the same Source for all conscious intelligence has been established by, "All Law" for all life to ascend and advance.
The Divine Eternal Universal Consciousness Intelligence is the only true governance for all life always, and everywhere.

So, the father energy is represented as the Sun and solar energies, and the mother energy is represented by the Universal nurturing energies. Both forces give respect to the other to bring forth the cycle that perpetuates the cycle for all life everywhere.
These are solar transmissions, solar flares, and cosmic winds.
We call these radiowaves, and solar radiation, that are really solar burst emissions that relay the divine vibrations of wisdom for us to rise up in our own Souls, Minds, and bodies to become more in tune with ourselves, each other, and this planet. And yes belove it one's, even the universe and beyond.
So walk with a mystical discretion around those that do not listen very well, and avoid those who are afraid of the love within themselves. You must also be wise and avoid the average follow the crowd people with the sheeple herdlike mentality, and rise above any and all limitations and hiderances. Because the knowledge that you seek will give you the wisdom that will lead you out of the fires of confusion and self-infliction. This fire will eliminate all grossness and the fuckery within you, and refine your eternal essence and for your Ascension to the higher realms. And this will only be drawn forth expansively, and prudently by hard work, and a lot of patience on this path for wisdom. So, the seeker will achieve their goal for soul ascension only through self-exploration, and their will to commit to, "All Law". Then the divine intelligence will descend to those on the path to self-advancement that dwells on the many earths and all life everywhere.This Omnipotent and Omnipresent Wisdom will radiate true guidance from the heavens to assist you so, that your thoughts, words, and deeds, will rise to the heavens. And you will be prepared

For your ascension. Then there will radiate down from heaven to earth more emissions that contain the intelligent forces, and potentials of the higher dimension to descend to the lower dimensions.Therefore from out of this same Bright Intelligent Source, all obscurities are illuminated, and the truth will shine brightly to those on the path. These words of power will transcend can and will enters the seeker, and lead them to the truth of their being. This operation indeed has its beginnings on Midgard in Tameruinkha, Tamerica, or America, by The being known as, Tehuti The High Priest and Scholar, Thoth The Royal Scribe, or Hermes The Philosopher.These are all the names given to the title of the scroll within the scroll called namely, The three-folded wisdom, or threefold knowledge. Remember, Be love it ones, you are your own savior and the truth you seek is within you. We are the celestial beings on Midgard, and the struggles that we endure and overcome make us stronger. So know, and stop be lie eveing others. And know this. That all those stories in all the scriptures on your world have been told long before on other worlds before your universe was created. So we are all beyond time, and more powerful than we think. Now it is your time to write your Tablet on how you appreciate this life. And what you will do the help advance all life.
The Divine Eternal Universal Consciousness and the other celestial beings are waiting to feel your words for power. Let these things be, let these things be, let these things be. Make it so, make it so, make it so. So be it, so be it, so be it.

Ahmen,
Ahtun, Ahmun, Ahnun.

Anu New Beginning starts with you. So write your tablet.
